NON-EUROPEAN candidates will have to be registered on the University portal (<https://www.university.it/>) on 21/06/2024, under penalty of exclusion.

Art. 3 – Submission of applications

All applicants have to submit their applications by 15 September 2024 and upload the necessary documents as listed in table B art. 4. on the following website: <https://www.international.unina.it/study-in-naples-2024-eu-and-non-eu-applications/>

Candidates for the Course in Hospitality Management may only apply if they are among those admitted to the public competition (DR/2024/1893 of 14/05/2024) for admission to the above mentioned course.

NON-EUROPEAN CANDIDATES WILL HAVE TO UPLOAD ALSO THE PRE-ACCEPTANCE APPLICATION (SUMMARY) RECEIVED DURING REGISTRATION ON THE UNIVERSITALY PORTAL, UNDER PENALTY OF EXCLUSION.

Article 4 – Award Criteria

The rankings will be prepared on the basis of the sums of the scores obtained by the candidates in the assessment areas indicated in Table B.

For each candidate, 30 total points are available as follows:

TABLE B
AREAS OF EVALUATION	SCORE
Career (Curriculum Vitae, certificate, letter of recommendation, portfolio etc.)	Up to 15 points
Letter of motivation: clarity of exposition, motivation, generality/specificity with respect to course of study, expository ability in English, originality	Up to 8 points
English language certification (Cambridge ESOL, PET/FCE, IELTS, ETS, TOEFL etc) and/or Italian language certification	Up to 7 points

The attached documentation must be legible, in a single pdf format, under penalty of exclusion from the selection.

Art. 5 – Ranking and approval

The scholarship will be awarded to the candidate with the highest score among the candidates in the same Course of Study. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates in the same Course of Study, the candidate younger in age is preferred.

Should one of the study courses listed in table A not register any applications, the grant allocated to that course will be added to the three allocated to the three study courses with the highest number of applications on the University portal and will be reserved exclusively for the least represented gender.

The Coinor offices will verify the regularity of the upload of the applications and the possession of the requirements of the candidates admitted to the evaluation as per art. 2 and art. 3 of the notice.

The Commission, made up of one or more of the Rector's delegates for international relations, a secretary taking minutes and, if necessary, a Compagnia di San Paolo representative, will be supported by 23 sub-commissions, one for each Department relating to the Course of Study included in the call. These sub-committees will propose the relative rankings of the eligible candidates based on the criteria set out in art. 4 of the call for applications, which, after consulting the Commission, will then be forwarded to Coinor for publication on the University and International websites.

Once the work is completed, the rankings will be published on the University website and on the International website (<http://www.international.unina.it/>).

This publication has the value of notification, and written communications on the outcome of the competition will be sent only to the winners.

In case of non-acceptance (art.6 of the call) by the scholarship recipients, the ranking list of the eligible candidates for each study course will be scrolled down until all the scholarships being made available for the call are awarded.

The Commission's judgement is final.

Art. 6 – Acceptance

The winner will be informed of the award of the Study in Naples scholarship by e-mail.

Within the mandatory deadline of 5 days from the date of receipt of the notice of the award of the Study in Naples scholarship, the winner must send by e-mail to admissions@unina.it the declaration of acceptance of Study in Naples (attachment 1) without reservation and under the conditions of the notice of competition, under penalty of forfeiture.
